

THE HESSEN-WISCONSIN EXCHANGE

International Summer Universities

(Sample Program Costs)

Exchange Program Fees

Home University Tuition for Off-campus (estimate) $1500.00

(6 credits, WI resident undergraduate. For the cost of paying UW tuition you receive the ISU program as outlined on their individual websites. This includes the academics, housing, excursions and some food. Because of the special arrangement with the exchange you do not pay the program fee amount as listed in Euros on the ISU websites)

Study Abroad Program Fee $xxx.xx

(ie-supporting the operation of your home university international education office, amount varies by institution)

Administration Fee (non-refundable after acceptance) $50.00

(make your check payable to "UW-Milwaukee" and attach with your application)

Other Relevant Estimated Costs

Airfare (varies depending on ticket) $800-$1200

Housing (included with the ISU program) $0

Meals not included $600.00 per month

(number of meals included varies by program, budget €15/day for 30 days @ $1.32)

Passport $85.00

UW System Health Insurance (CISI) $31.00 per month

Personal Expenses ($20/day for 30 days) $600.00 per month

All financial aid and academic scholarships normally received at your home campus for summer school should be applicable to study in Germany, including the Wisconsin Grant for Study Abroad (if available). Check with your campus study abroad advisor and/or financial aid office for details specific to your campus.