

CIE Overseas Programs and Partnerships Graduate Study Abroad Opportunities

**ALL Graduate students should meet with a Study Abroad Advisor to discuss study abroad opportunities****

In addition to the listings below, UWM offers many summer and Winterim study abroad courses where graduate credit is available, see brochures and Website for details: <http://www.uwm.edu/Dept/CIE/OPP/programs.html>

Program / Location	Academic Discipline	Term / Duration	Application Deadline
CANADA
• Montreal Exchange	Humanities, Social Science	semester / academic year	March 15
ENGLAND:
? Birmingham Exchange	Business, Economics, Political Science	academic year spring	March 15 October 1
FRANCE:
• ESA Exchange	Architecture	semester or academic year	March 15
• ESSEC Exchange	Business, Economics, HRLR	semester or academic year	March 15
• MICEFA Exchange	Multiple disciplines	semester or academic year	March 15
• Paris III (Sorbonne Nouvelle)	Foreign Languages and Linguistics	semester or academic year	March 15
• Sciences Po Exchange	Business Social Sciences	summer semester or academic year	February 1 March 15
GERMANY:
? Giessen Exchange	Economics, English, Business	academic year spring	April 15 April 15 (early) / October 1 (final)
• Viadrina Exchange	Law, Economics, Cultural Studies	academic year spring	March 15 October 1
JAPAN
• Nanzan Exchange	Humanities, Social Science, Business	semester or academic year	March 15
KOREA
• Ajou Exchange	Humanities, Social Sciences	academic year spring	March 15 October 15
MEXICO:
• ITESM Exchange	Humanities, Social Sciences, Business	summer, semester or year	March 1

NOTE: Additional programs and locations may be open to graduate students on a case-by-case basis. For information on various fellowship and grant opportunities for graduate research abroad, please visit the OPP website at: <http://www.uwm.edu/Dept/CIE/OPP/OPP.html>. Click on: International Graduate Funding Opportunities