

HELPFUL WEBSITES

*NOTE: These websites are listed merely as resources. They are NOT official affiliations of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

FOREIGN INFORMATION/TRAVEL ADVISORIES

<http://www.state.gov/>

The State Department site lists various travel warnings, consular offices, embassies, and other travel and safety information. This is a good site to check out prior to departure.

<http://www.cdc.gov/travel>

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention site gives tips on how to stay healthy in any region you go to. Also, they give recommendations for vaccination, preparing for travel, and travel clinics. It is best to check this site out well before your trip in order to have enough time for needed vaccinations.

STUDY INFORMATION

Please keep in mind that PRIOR to applying to a NON-UWM Study Abroad Program you must contact a Study Abroad Advisor by calling (414) 229-5182.

<http://www.studyabroad.com>

Whatever or wherever you want to study, there's information on programs and opportunities abroad.

<http://www.ciee.org> (if you are interested in these programs, you must contact CIE, Overseas Programs and Partnerships, (414) 229-5182)

Council on International Educational Exchange site lists various opportunities for work, travel, or study abroad.

<http://www.petersons.com/>

A commercial directory of study abroad programs and financial aid.

<http://www.goabroad.com>

This site provides links to the international opportunities you seek: volunteer, study, teach, and many others.

<http://www.iiepassport.org>

The Institute of International Education provides a search engine that can help you narrow your search down to a program right for you.

<http://www.umich.edu/~icenter>

There are multiple links to every type of program abroad.

<http://www.istc.umn.edu>

A well designed site for an overview of study, work and travel abroad options.

<http://www.uwsa.edu/acadaff/abroad/>

University of Wisconsin System institutions offer students a wide variety of opportunities in all aspects of international education. Some of these study abroad programs are open to students registered at any accredited post-secondary institution in the United States; others are limited to students registered at the sponsoring U W System institution.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

<http://www.state.gov/www/services.html>

Information on Visas, Travel publications. Download Passport Application Forms.

<http://www.lonelyplanet.com>

This site has country info on activities, culture, getting around while you're there, history, and other fun facts.

<http://ricksteves.com>

There's lots of traveling tips on where to go and what to do.

<http://letsgo.com>

Offers info about cities you want to travel to.

<http://www.hiayh.org>

Hostelling International provides info about cheap places to stay while traveling abroad or domestically.

<http://www.raileurope.com/us/>

This is a helpful site in deciding how to travel to multiple destinations in Europe.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

<http://www.fastweb.com>
<http://www.fedworld.gov/#usgovt>
<http://www.finaid.org/>
<http://www.rotary.org/foundation/educational>
<http://www.uwm.edu/Dept/FINAID>
<http://www.collegeboard.com>

WORK/VOLUNTEER/INTERN ABROAD

<http://www.rtpnet.org/~intintl>

Lists non-paying internships in all fields for recent graduates or college seniors.

<http://www.aitech.ac.jp/~iteslj/links/>

Good links for ESL research, jobs, and associations

<http://www.info.usaid.gov>

This is an independent government agency assists in overseas development. It lists many opportunities and links to foreign work and travel.

<http://www.bunac.org>

Work abroad in Britain, Australia, New Zealand, or Canada.

<http://www.campcounselors.com>

Work and travel around Down Under

<http://www.overseasjobs.com/>

A comprehensive source of jobs.

<http://volunteerinternational.org>

This site has many helpful links to volunteering all over the world.

<http://www.umich.edu/~icenter>

Univ. of Michigan has an extensive website, which offers ample information on work and travel abroad as well as study.

<http://www.counciltravel.com/>

Work, Travel and many other resources.

<http://www.cie.uci.edu/iop/internsh.html>

There are many links to finding an internship abroad.

<http://www.iaesteunitedstates.org>

The International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience (IAESTE) places students in technical fields in paid internships overseas. Fields of study: engineering, natural and physical sciences, computer science, architecture, agricultural science, mathematics, etc....

<http://www.aiesec.org>

This organization, run by students, matches applicants to international internships in the fields of management, technology, and development.

<http://www.cdsintl.org>

This non-profit organization offers a variety of internship and practical training programs in Germany, Turkey, Switzerland, Ecuador, and Argentina.

<http://www.state.gov/www/careers/index.html>

The Department manages several student employment programs for students to get experience in a foreign affairs environment through first-hand knowledge.

<http://www.cie.uci.edu/iop/internsh.html>

This Web site, produced by the University of California, Irvine, provides a list of "best bests for internships Abroad."

<http://www.ELTAP.org>

The English Language Teaching Assistant Program is run through the University of Minnesota-Morris. They will match you with an English teacher overseas. You pay to participate in the program, but are provided with room and board.

<http://www.globalst.org>

The Global Student Teaching Program is run through the University of Minnesota-Morris. This program is designed for students seeking a career in education.