

CONSENT FOR RELEASE OF STUDENT INFORMATION
UNDER THE FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS PRIVACY ACT ("FERPA")

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of students' educational records. Educational records, which include financial aid records, are considered confidential and will not be released without your prior written consent. If you wish for UWM to release information to anyone during or in connection with your study abroad, please complete the form below and sign it before a Notary Public.

I hereby give the employees and agents of the University of Wisconsin—Milwaukee ("UWM") permission to release any information found in my education records, regarding the following topics, to the persons listed below:

- Financial Aid, including all information regarding balances due and owing on my account with UWM, loans, grants or other aid received, my financial aid application
- Health (note that this does not include records maintained solely by the Norris Student Health Center, which are subject to separate release)
- Registration for the semester I return to the UWM campus
- Study Abroad Program Information

Persons to whom the information may be released:
