

Working the Earth:

LIS Labour, Ethical Grounds, and the Hot Fields of Human Rights

Toni Samek is Associate Professor, School of Library & Information Studies University of Alberta, where her teaching, research, and service interests include critical librarianship, intercultural information ethics, global information justice, human rights, intellectual freedom, social responsibility, library history, and library education. She is the author of the 2001 book Intellectual Freedom and Social Responsibility in American Librarianship, 1967-1974, published by McFarland & Company Inc, Publishers, and the 2007 book Librarianship and Human Rights: A 21st Century Guide, Chandos (Oxford) Publishing. Dr. Samek is also Chair, Canadian Library Association's Advisory Committee on Intellectual Freedom and Advisory Board Member, Information for Social Change.

TONI SAMEK

Associate Professor
University of Alberta;
Center for Information Policy Research
Information Ethics Fellow

Thursday
February 22, 2007

11:30 am

UWM Libraries Room E281

2311 East Hartford Ave
Milwaukee, WI 53211

cipr
CENTER FOR INFORMATION POLICY RESEARCH

INFORMATION our focus
INTERNATIONAL our scope
INTERDISCIPLINARY our mindset

All lectures are free and open to the public.
Questions, or accommodation requests
email: cipr@sois.uwm.edu